Glade Church, a United Church of Christ (UCC) congregation, is a progressive Christian community—welcoming, compassionate, and joyful—seeking to embrace all people wherever they find themselves in life. We strive to discern God’s still-speaking voice through worship, study, fellowship, and service. We work for God’s peace and social, economic, and ecological justice.

Pastor Kelly is available for meetings on Mondays. Contact them at bryantkj@gmail.com to schedule an appointment.

Join us for worship at 11:00 a.m. every Sunday Morning

Pastoral Evaluation Survey

Glade Church requests your participation in the Pastoral Evaluation Survey. The survey is designed to improve the effectiveness of the pastor's ministry, foster professional growth, and strengthen communication between the pastor and the congregation. You do not have to be a member to participate in the survey, and we would appreciate as many viewpoints as possible.

When approaching the task, please keep the following in mind:

- Pray for openness and a spirit of discernment
- Be honest and provide more than one-word answers
- Be respectful (speak the truth in love)
- Give it the time it deserves
- Answer only for yourself, not for anyone else (don't report hearsay or gossip)
- Remember that this is meant as an exercise for pastoral as well as congregational learning and growth

There are paper copies of the survey available in the sanctuary. You can also access the survey through a Google Doc available here: <https://forms.gle/6jpf7uXqeUDqRF1h8>
Please submit your responses by Sunday June 7, 2026.

Laundry Love

Laundry Love has opportunities to volunteer. This is a great way to put “Words” into “Actions” of faith and love. We do this at the laundromat on North Main across from the Y-Thrift Shop. Click below to volunteer! Can't join us at the laundromat but still want to help? Donations of quarters, laundry detergent, fabric softener sheets and individually wrapped juice and snacks are always welcome!

The Hamper – Pop-up Laundry Love Fundraiser

The Hamper is a new mini pop-up gift shop benefiting Laundry Love that can be found at church and other places around town, started by creative genius Jill Sible. It contains random small items like hand painted bookmarks, mugs, and LOVE coffee with suggested pricing. Be sure to check it out, I'm sure you'll find something to take home! If you're crafty and interested in donating any of your projects to the gift shop please contact Jill.

Food Pantry

Food Pantry donations collected at Glade continue to supplement the Future Economy Collective Food Drive that's distributed to Laundry Love guests on the third Sunday of each month. As of April 19, the FEC is requesting donations of dry Purina dog and cat food, trash bags, menstrual products, and non-perishable food items. Thank you all for your donations, they are greatly appreciated!

New Member Class on May 17th

Pastor Kelly is planning a New Member Class on Sunday May 17th after service. Whether you're interested in becoming a member or just want to know more about the Glade community, we hope to see you there.

Did You Know?

Join Advocates for Love and Religious Freedom (ALRF) every Thursday in May from 7-8 pm EDT for an online discussion of the NY Times bestseller - The Separation of Church and Hate: A Sane Person's Guide to Taking Back the Bible from Fundamentalists, Fascists, and Flock-Fleecing Frauds — by comedian and broadcaster, John Fugelsang.

Register here to join this important discussion, facilitated by UCC pastors, the Rev. John Dorhauer (past General Minister and President of the United Church of Christ) the Rev. Barry W. Lynn (retired Executive Director of Americans United for Separation of Church and State and former legislative counsel in UCC's Office of Church in Society in Washington, D.C.), and the Rev. Corey Sanderson (pastor of Second Church in Newtown, MA).

ALRF's project, This Is Christianity was created from a belief that, as Christians, we should follow Jesus's commandment to love our neighbors, and that it is our responsibility to care for the least of us. ALRF does this by advocating for human rights, justice, and freedom, and speaking out against the dangerous political ideology of Christian Nationalism.

Radical Conversations [RadCon] Meets Saturdays at 11:00 AM

Radical Conversations [RadCon] continues a series of explorations on the topic “Resistance as Public Theology in the United States”. We will explore the role of religion as resistance in movements such as the American Revolution, Abolitionist Movement, Women’s Suffrage, Civil Rights, and Vietnam plus others.

RadCon is an ecumenical group that meets on Saturday mornings from 11:00 am to 12:30 pm (or as long as people want to stay and discuss!). We meet in the “Red Room” at Glade Church. This is an “open forum” rather than a classroom-like lecture and all points-of-view are accepted in an atmosphere of civility.

Everyone is welcome. For more information contact Edd Sewell or email him at eddsewell@gmail.com You may be asking “What is public theology?” Here is a good definition from a recent article in the New York Times by Lauren Jackson titled “The Role of Public Theology in Crisis” on 22 March 2026: People have always talked of God in the public square. Faith leaders, scholars, activists and politicians all bring religion to bear on otherwise secular issues, like public policy, economics and social norms. Around the middle of the 20th century, academics named that phenomenon “public theology.”
